Quarter of a million downloads for ECDISregs

Having reached the milestone of 250,000 downloads; ECDISregs has proven its worth as one of the more widely used online maritime resources.

Since its inception the website has attracted over 29,000 users from every major maritime nation, making it one of the most valuable 'go to' sites available. ECDISregs.com promises greater success in the future as it prepares to undergo significant investment and redevelopment over the coming months, a platform from which it can begin to fulfill its' potential and benefit the maritime industry to an even greater extent.

ECDISregs.com is the only full, free-to-access library of publications and documentation of regulations pertaining to ECDIS (Electronic Chart Display and Information System) and related subjects. It is owned and managed by the World's largest independent provider of training and consultancy on ECDIS – ECDIS Ltd.
