

Press Release
December 2014

Christmas Jumpers raise £100 for Save the Children!

On 12 December 2014, staff and students at the navigational training facility, ECDIS Ltd, put on their Christmassy, festive woollies all in aid of raising money for Save the Children.

As part of the Christmas jumper day, the team put on their very own bring and buy great British bake off, as well as competing in the snow sweepstake asking for small donations from staff and students throughout the day. When counting the donations at the end of the day, the team were astonished to have raised £100 all through their cakes and bakes!

The money raised from the day will help save children's lives around the world, from Syria to Liberia, Brazil to Bangladesh.

ECDIS Ltd would like to thank all staff and students who donated throughout the day and are already looking forward to next year!

ENDS.

Notes to editors:

- For more information and pictures after the event, please contact Amy Shelton, Head of Marketing, on 01489 559 677 / shelton@ecdis.org
- Christmas Jumper Day is a national fundraising event in aid of Save the Children. This year, hundreds of thousands of people up and down the country are expected to take part. Find out more at: www.christmasjumperday.org

Save the Children works in more than 120 countries to save children's lives, fight for their rights and help them fulfil their potential. Find out more at: www.savethechildren.org.uk