ECDIS Ltd has begun its series of international seminars, training maritime inspectors on best practice for marine risk reduction.

[Whiteley, Hampshire March 2016] ECDIS Ltd has made a strong start to their series of international seminars in Tokyo, Japan with great success and positive feedback.

The seminar titled "ECDIS Inspections: Marine Risk Reduction, Detentions & Best Practice" provides the delegates with practical, insightful knowledge of the best ways to prevent lengthy, costly port detentions; something which all global shipping companies want to avoid.

The feedback from the delegates has shown that their time was well spent and knowledge was gained from the speakers Mark Broster and Robyn Harrigan:

"The speaker gave me some ideas and information on how to improve our company SMS procedure.. I now realise what kind of instructions can be provided for my company." - Hayama Shipping Ltd

"It was a very good experience and I hope there shall be many more seminars like this in the future." - KLine Ship Management

The speakers knowledge was very highly praised and our future seminars will be recommended to friends and colleagues by all the delegates who attended.

Their next seminar will be in Dubai on Tuesday 22nd March and is already filling up fast. Those interested in attending any of the seminars and for the chance to get a free ticket visit www.ecdis.org/seminars or email seminars@ecdise.org. Please note the spaces are limited and as such are on a first come first serve basis on the free tickets, there is a cost for any additional tickets required per company.

End.
