

Further MCA Approval for ECDIS Ltd

ECDIS Ltd's Train the Simulator Trainer & Assessor course has received approval from the MCA.

[Whiteley, Hampshire November 2015] The IMO 6.10 Model course has been interpreted and written to a high industry standard by ECDIS Ltd and now has been delivered to, audited and approved by the MCA.

ECDIS Ltd has further cemented its position in the market as the centre for instructor training.

Merchant marine instructors of all grades can now benefit from completing both the IMO 6.09 (approved September 2015) and IMO 6.10 all under one roof at ECDIS Ltd who is now able to deliver the complete package of IMO Training Courses for Instructors.

With this completion and 6.10 course sign off, the ever-growing deck and navigation training centre now has 6 full approvals and recognitions from the MCA:

- ECDIS Generic
- HELM \(Management\)

- HELM \(Operational\)
- 6.09 Instructor Training Course \(Theory\)
- 6.10 Train the Simulator Trainer & Assessor
- Bridge Team Management \(MCA Recognised\)

Richard 'Joe' Sloy, instructor for 6.09 & 6.10 courses commented "It is always an accolade to receive MCA approval for our courses, but to receive 2 for both the instructor training courses back to back has been quite special. We can now specialise and pride ourselves in making a difference to training in the industry as we make sure trainers are well equipped with the skills and knowledge they need to become effective teachers."

Robyn Harrigan, Production and training manager added "It can be a long process toward approval for training centres, so receiving the official certificate is a hugely gratifying moment. I am extremely proud of our MCA approved course list and the milestone we reach with each one. Our growth has been substantial over the last 2 years and the MCA stamp for the instructor training courses has grounded us as a centre for delivering high quality trainers"
